

London, Thursday 11th May

First we drove near Green Park, then went to Buckingham Palace and through China Town together. After this our freetime started. My group (Franziska, Annika, Till, Raphael, Johannes, Celine, Blanka, Fabian, Frieda, Alina, Maximilian and Phillip) went to get something to eat first and some of us got ourselves bubble tea. It started to rain, so we went into a Harry Potter Shop until it stopped raining. Then went to a thrift store, then into an American candy shop and last but not least to Hollister. We arrived on time back on our meeting point, so we could get our train. Now we went back to our bus and drove to the ferry and then back to Landau.
